Speaker/Media Kit

BOOK CHRISTINE

Christine Jaynes equips women to trade fear for fire—and rise with purpose.

Christine Jaynes doesn't just speak. She trains in Truth. As the founder of the online platform, Train In Truth, Christine equips women to apply Scripture to the messy, mundane, and meaningful moments of life—body, soul, and spirit. Her core conviction?

The battles of life are inevitable.
So let's put in the sweat to train in the Truth,
so we can avoid all the unnecessary bleeding.

Christine's powerful mix of biblical depth, practical application, and insight helps women stop living stuck and start living strong—anchored in who God is and who they are.

Whether she's teaching, preaching, or dropping a spoken word truth bomb, Christine's style is Spirit-led, super relatable, and sometimes bold—always designed to awaken real transformation.

She has a unique gift for turning Scripture into strategy, helping women not just know the Word but live it. With every message, Christine invites her audience into deeper intimacy with the Father, greater empowerment by the Spirit, and a more confident identity in Christ.

Christine brings a powerful mix of ministry experience, creativity, and lived wisdom to every message.

From launching into ministry at 18 to performing spoken word, her unique blend of Bible teaching, acting skills, and real-world resilience allows her to connect deeply with women from all walks of life.

Her story—marked by a blended family, five pregnancies in five years, chronic illness, a resilient marriage, and deep personal healing—gives her voice authenticity and weight. Her teaching is vivid, vulnerable, and always anchored in Scripture.

With her God-given acting gift, Christine brings messages to life through story, imagery, and prophetic insight—delivering fresh revelation that doesn't just inspire but transforms.

Topics Include

- ✓ Overcoming fear by renouncing false identities and stepping into Spirit-led confidence.

The Experience

CROWN & SWORD

Bring the event to your community

A 3-Day Encounter to Equip, Awaken, and Commission Women for Battle. More than a conference, this is a full-body, full-Spirit encounter where women leave equipped, restored, healed, and ready to fight for their families, their churches, and their calling.

Christine Jaynes and her team bring the Crown & Sword Experience to your community—delivering four power-packed teachings, guided solitude, worship, small group activations, and a one-of-a-kind commissioning moment that marks hearts forever. Each woman receives a workbook for note-taking and reflection, space to wrestle with God, and Spirit-led conversation that brings the Word to life. Christine also trains your small group leaders beforehand to help them hold space with grace and confidence during the event.

This 3-day experience is built on the four pillars of Christine's Crown & Sword framework:

- Renounce fear
- Participate in the Spirit of Power
- Embrace your royal title through love
- Be a disciplined warrior

If you're ready to see your women rise in power, identity, and purpose—this is the experience that will activate them into it.

Spiritual Training for becoming a

Royal Warrior

Forget surface-level faith. Forget performing for God or striving to “get it right.” Forget living in fear, burnout, or identity confusion. Want to live boldly and confidently in who God created you to be—full of power, love, and a sound mind?

From retreat rooms & leadership circles to stages, screens, and sanctuaries—Christine trains women to rise in identity, walk in Truth, and *lead with love.

Just as she's done for years, Christine knows how to turn any environment—whether it's a retreat center, sanctuary, living room, or Zoom room—into holy ground. Whether gathered in person or logging in from across the globe, Christine brings the boldness of a trainer, the heart of a mentor, and the clarity of a teacher.

She leads in the No More Dry Ground global community of 43K, equipping women of faith in life and business. She disciples online through Bible studies and devotionals with the Train In Truth platform, and she regularly pours into her local church body with leadership, passion & presence.

Whether it's a keynote, workshop, intimate gathering, or digital training—Christine brings activation, authenticity, and anointing every single time.

Christine meets women where they are—and calls them higher.

No matter the room, the screen, or the setting, she carries a rare ability to create space for transformation—and lead it with conviction, compassion, and clarity.
