Key 1 - Love God

Loving God is the foundational calling of human existence and the ultimate purpose for which we were created. In Matthew 22:37-38, when asked to identify the single most important instruction in Scripture, Jesus answered, "'Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind.' This is the first and greatest commandment." This total devotion is not an invention of the New Testament; it builds directly upon the ancient Hebrew creed found in Deuteronomy 6:5. Biblical love for God engages every dimension of human life—our emotions, our inner spiritual life, and our intellectual faculties—demanding an undivided loyalty that places Him above all competing priorities and desires.

Crucially, Scripture reveals that our love for God is not something we manufacture in our own strength, but a personal response to His prior initiative. As 1 John 4:19 succinctly states, "We love because he first loved us." The depth of God's love was decisively demonstrated through the sacrifice of His Son, giving believers both the reason and the capacity to love Him in return. Loving God means recognizing His sovereignty, offering Him genuine praise, and seeking intimacy with Him through regular prayer and reflection on His character. It transforms God from a distant concept into the primary object of our deepest affection and devotion.

Finally, the Bible makes clear that genuine love for God is proved through tangible obedience rather than mere emotion or sentimentality. Jesus explicitly connected these two concepts in John 14:15 when He said, “If you love me, keep my commands.” This principle is echoed in 1 John 5:3, which notes that “this is love for God: to keep his commands. And his commands are not burdensome.” Loving God daily involves aligning our choices, motives, and actions with His revealed truth, trusting that His commands are designed for our good and His glory. Far from being a rigid obligation, practical obedience is the natural expression of a heart that truly honors, trusts, and loves its Creator.

Key 1 - Love God

Step 1 - Abide with Holy Spirit

In order to grow we need to breathe…

Opening Question

Have you ever heard God “speak” to you? Tell your Growth Coach about it. Ask them about a time they’ve heard God speak to them.

Training

Holy Spirit is our helper (John 16:7), cleaner (1 Corinthians 6:11), teacher (John 14:26) makes us more like Christ (2 Corinthians 3:18), helps us do the Father’s will (Acts 8:29), gifts us for ministry (1 Corinthians 12:4-11), imparts love (Romans 5:3-5), gives us hope (Romans 15:13), guides our prayers (Romans 8:26), empowers us to witness (Acts 1:8).

He is God on earth, so it’s tough to sum up everything He does here on earth.

But the truth you need to know is that you can be in connection with Him each and every day. All day. All the time.

Jesus did it. He only said what He heard the Father say (John 12:49). He only did what He saw the Father do (John 5:19).

It's our goal to be like Him and live that way. It's something we grow into.

For now, you need to know you can "hear" the Father's voice. This is usually not an audible voice. It's more often a still, quiet voice; a deeper knowing; a thought that is smarter than we can come up with on our own. This is how God the Holy Spirit communicates with us (Acts 15:28).

The tool we have for you is one that will show you how close you already are to Him. The more you use it, the more you test it, the more you'll know you "hear" Holy Spirit.

TOOL – CONVERSATIONAL JOURNALING

Conversational journaling reads more like the dialogue in a novel than it does a biography or checklist. There's no planning in Conversational Journaling and writing tends to become more profound and much deeper than what you can come up with on your own.

Here's a few simple steps to start conversational journaling: Take a journal and write out a question. Fix your thoughts on Jesus and the love of the Father. Suddenly you'll have a good thought. Write it down. Write whatever comes to your mind in response to your question write it down.  Do this free-flow, don't edit it.  What you write can be tested later to make sure it lines up with Scripture. Ask another question. Write down the good thought you have in response. What occurs is a two-way conversation between a loving Father and child.

Don't be afraid that all these good answers are coming from you. First, I'll wager they'll be better than you think you can come up with on your own. They still may be coming from you, but don't worry – you have the mind of Christ (1 Corinthians 2:16).

We are seated in heavenly places (Ephesians 2:6 ). We are sheep that know the shepherd's voice (John 10:27). We have the Kingdom of God within us (Luke 17:21).

How to Test What You Conversationally Journal

I'm not saying you're infallible and I'm not suggesting you shouldn't test and confirm what God is telling you. We're not under the law where if a prophecy didn't come about you'd be stoned. Under grace we seem to be allowed to make mistakes since Paul tells us to "Test everything and hold to the good" (1 Thessalonians 5:21). You can test what you've written by:

The Word of God: It can't be contrary to the will of God in Scripture. (Hebrews 4:12; 1 Corinthians 14:37; Isaiah 8:19-20; 1 Timothy 6:3; 2 Timothy 3:16-17; 2 John 1:7-11)

The Witness of the Spirit: It needs to "seem good to us" and others. (1 John 2:27; 1 Corinthians 2:15)

By its Fruit : Does it edify? Does it produce life? Is it clear or confusing? (1 Corinthians 14:4; John 6:68; 1 Corinthians 14:33)

You test what you write against the cannon of Scripture and major decisions you come to should be confirmed by a spiritual father or mother.  Conversational Journalling is a valuable tool to learn how to hear God for a specific situation. And to have hope in transition, you need to wait on God, expecting He'll speak. Because He will. He's your dad. Your Father is good and He's in a good mood and He loves giving good gifts to you.

Key 1 - Love God

Step 2 - Pray to your Good Father

In order to grow we need to communicate

Opening Question

What's your experience with prayer? Ask your Growth Coach to share their experience with you.

Training

Sometimes teaching on prayer is a little confusing. Jesus seems to almost confuse the issue in His sermon on the mount. He says

"When you pray, don't be like the hypocrites who love to pray publicly on street corners and in the synagogues where everyone can see them. I tell you the truth, that is all the reward they will ever get. But when you pray, go away by yourself, shut the door behind you, and pray to your Father in private. Then your Father, who sees everything, will reward you. Matthew 6:5-6

OK. We get that. Don't pray for show. Then He says…

> "When you pray, don't babble on and on as the Gentiles do. They think their prayers are answered merely by repeating their words again and again. Don't be like them, for your Father knows exactly what you need even before you ask him! Matthew 6:7-8

And then in the same sermon, in the next chapter He says:

> "Keep on asking, and you will receive what you ask for. Keep on seeking, and you will find. Keep on knocking, and the door will be opened to you. For everyone who asks, receives. Everyone who seeks, finds. And to everyone who knocks, the door will be opened. Matthew 7:7-8

He tells us not to babble, then tells us keep asking, keep seeking and keep knocking. What's going on?

Earlier in His sermon, He's talking about praying for what we need. Since we have a good Father who wants good for us, we don't need to convince Him to give us good things that we need. So we don't need to babble.

In Chapter 7 He's telling us to not judge others and He knows this isn't easy. Whatever we need to grow in, we should keep on asking, keep on seeking and keep on knocking. We're relying on Him to finish the good work He's started in us (Philippians 1:6). It's too easy to try to finish in the flesh what was started in the Spirit.

So what does Jesus say about prayer?

In Matthew 5 Jesus teaches his disciples to pray. Here are the highlights.

Verse 9: Jesus says we should give honour to God and His name.

Verse 10: We are to pray for His Kingdom to come, and for His will to be done, like it is in heaven. If it's not in heaven, we know it's not God's will for it done on earth.

Verse 11: We are to pray for daily provision.

Verse 12: We are to pray and ask for forgiveness for our sins, and for others who have wronged us.

Verse 13: We are to pray and ask God to keep us from being tempted, and to deliver us from Satan and his power.

In Luke 18 Jesus tells us parables so that we will "always pray and never give up" and He assumes we'll pray (Matthew 6:5).

Paul, in Philippians 4:6, says that we should pray for everything with thanksgiving and in 1 Thessalonians 5:16-18 says we should pray without ceasing.

Peter, in 1 Peter 5:7, exhorts us to cast all our care upon God, because He cares about us.

James says we can pray and ask God for wisdom, but this should be done in faith (James 1:5) and in James 4:1-4 says that when we pray, we often pray or ask out of our own selfish ambition. James 4:15 exhorts that we need to pray for God's will to be done in our lives.

In this journey you're on, you need to pray. But the secret isn't just to pray, it's "pray and obey" what feels right to you and the Holy Spirit.

He's a tool to help you start to have a private time of prayer.

Tool – The ACTS Method of Christian Prayer

Adoration: Give God praise and honour for who he is as Lord over all.

Confession: Honestly deal with the sin in your prayer life.

Thanksgiving: Verbalize what you're grateful for in your life and in the world around you.

Supplication: Pray for the needs of others and yourself.

Application

Pray every day using the ACTS method and don't be afraid to talk to God throughout the day.

And here's one more hint for you – if you can ever leave a time of prayer without having peace – you've been complaining and not praying. Prayer is an exchange of our concerns with His peace.

Why read the Bible? Why wake up 15 minutes early each day? Why go to all that trouble?  After all, sleeping is better than reading, right? Sleep has its place, but so does the Bible. Here are 10 reasons to read the Bible:

1.  Reading the Bible shows us God's character. The Bible is our definitive source for the answers to our questions about God.

“In the past God spoke to our ancestors through the prophets at many times and in various ways, but in these last days he has spoken to us by his Son, whom he appointed heir of all things, and through whom also he made the universe. The Son is the radiance of God’s glory and the exact representation of his being, sustaining all things by his powerful word. After he had provided purification for sins, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty in heaven” (Hebrews 1:1-3).

2. Reading the Bible teaches us to imitate God.

“Follow God’s example, therefore, as dearly loved children” (Ephesians 5:1).

3. Reading the Bible helps us discover our next step.

“Your word is a lamp for my feet, a light on my path” (Psalm 119:105).

4. Reading the Bible keeps us from sin.

“I have hidden your word in my heart that I might not sin against you” (Psalm 119:11).

5. Reading the Bible helps us to renew our minds so we can know God’s will.

“Therefore, I urge you, brothers and sisters, in view of God’s mercy, to offer your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to God—this is your true and proper worship. Do not conform to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God’s will is—his good, pleasing and perfect will” (Romans 12:1-2).

6. Reading the Bible allows us to be certain of what God said. The Bible is our final authority.

“Sanctify them by the truth; your word is truth” (John 17:17).

7. Reading the Bible allows us to receive the desires of our heart.

“If you remain in me and my words remain in you, ask whatever you wish, and it will be done for you” (John 15:7).

8. Reading the Bible is how we learn about the gospel.

"You study the Scriptures diligently because you think that in them you have eternal life. These are the very Scriptures that testify about me, yet you refuse to come to me to have life" John 5:39-40.

9. Reading the Bible gives us courage.

"Keep this Book of the Law always on your lips; meditate on it day and night, so that you may be careful to do everything written in it. Then you will be prosperous and successful. Have I not commanded you? Be strong and courageous. Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged, for the Lord your God will be with you wherever you go" (Joshua 1:8-9).

10. Reading the Bible helps us to be fruitful.

"… but whose delight is in the law of the Lord, and who meditates on his law day and night. That person is like a tree planted by streams of water, which yields its fruit in season and whose leaf does not wither— whatever they do prospers" (Psalm 1:2-3).

So how do you read the Bible? We have a 50-day reading plan to get you started. It's not just about checking off the read column – although that can be satisfying. We want the Bible to read us. We allow that by asking the questions we outline below.

APPLICATION

Pick a time:

- Morning or Evening: Jesus and the psalmists are often found praying in the morning (e.g., Psalm 5:3; Luke 4:42). The evenings less so, but choose a time when you are at your best and most attentive.
- Lunch Break: If you have time during your workday to read during your lunch or another break, this might be a perfect way to spend your time.
- Anytime: Some of you may have such busy lives that you need to fit it in whenever you can. This is totally normal! Make sure that whatever time you decide to read your Bible that you are in a place where you can focus and reflect on God's Word.

Pick a strategy:

- Study Bible: We recommend the NIV Life Application or NIV Study Bible. If you want to get even more in-depth, look at some of the commentaries in the NIV Application Commentary Series.
- Bible Reading Plan: Choose a plan and work the plan. If you miss some days, do not try to catch up. Simply pick up where you left off.
- Journal: We recommend using a simple journal that's easy to use. You can find these at just about any store, especially bookstores or online.
- Pen: To take notes within your Bible or a journal.

PUT IT TO WORK:

- Pray: Ask God to speak to you through his Word. And then expect God to speak. Your approach to God's Word will greatly impact your times of personal worship. Ask God to search your heart and to transform your life.
- Read: Mark up your Bible as you read. If you have an interpretive question, use the study Bible notes to explore answers. It may be helpful to join a Bible study or home group to get further direction by your peers and leaders in the church.
- Journal (try to limit it to one page per day to start): Start a new page and record the date and Scripture you read on the top line. Write down a verse or two that stood out to you, word-for-word. Stay focused on what God is saying through his Word that intersects with your everyday life. This is not about speculation, private interpretations or manipulating God's Word to say what you want it to say. This is about bringing Christ to your everyday life based on the truth of God's Word rightly interpreted. Ask yourself and answer in your journal What does it say? How can I summarize each passage into two or three sentences?What does it mean? What does each passage teach me? What is the spiritual truths or principles in these verses? How can I apply this? What is the Lord specifically leading me to do in response to this passage?

Key 2 - Love People

Loving others is not merely a suggestion in Scripture; it is the central command that defines the Christian life and reflects the very character of God. In 1 John 4:7-8, the Bible grounds our capacity for love directly in God's nature, stating, "Dear friends, let us love one another, for love comes from God. Everyone who loves has been born of God and knows God. Whoever does not love does not know God, because God is love." Biblical love is not a passive feeling or an occasional act of kindness, but a sacrificial commitment modeled most clearly by Jesus on the cross. When Jesus was asked to name the greatest commandment, He pointed first to loving God and immediately coupled it with loving our neighbors as ourselves, declaring in Matthew 22:39 that these two principles anchor all of God's instructions to humanity.

Scripture also makes it clear that love serves as the primary standard by which true faith is demonstrated to the world. In John 13:34-35, Jesus gives His disciples a new mandate: “A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another. By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another.” This call extends far beyond loving those who are easy to love or who love us in return. Jesus radically challenges His followers in Matthew 5:44 to love their enemies and pray for those who persecute them. Through these teachings, the Bible establishes that genuine Christian love crosses boundaries, rejects self-interest, and serves as a visible witness of the Gospel to a watching world.

Practically, biblical love demands active, everyday choices rather than empty words. The Apostle Paul famously outlines the real-world posture of love in 1 Corinthians 13:4-7, describing it as patient, kind, humble, forgiving, and enduring, while explicitly noting that love “does not dishonor others, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, [and] it keeps no record of wrongs.” This practical application is reinforced in 1 John 3:18, which urges believers, “Dear children, let us not love with words or speech but with actions and in truth.” Whether through extending grace in difficult relationships, meeting tangible needs in our communities, or choosing humility over pride, loving others according to Scripture means actively seeking their highest good through sacrificial, Christ-like action.

Step 4 - Become More Like Jesus

In order to grow we need to grow up

Opening Question

Have you had a time you've needed to forgive? Share your story with your Growth Coach. Ask your Growth Coach about a time they needed to forgive and what happened.

Training

Becoming like Jesus is not about striving for moral perfection in our own strength; it is the natural outcome of a life surrendered to God. Known in Christian theology as sanctification, the process of transformation into Christlikeness is both a sovereign work of the Holy Spirit and an active daily calling for every believer. Understanding why this transformation matters and how it takes place provides clarity and endurance for the faith journey.

The Why: Purpose, Bearing Fruit, and God's Will

To understand why we are called to become like Jesus, we must first look at God's ultimate purpose for humanity. In Romans 8:29, the Apostle Paul reveals the overarching design for believers: "For those God foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brothers and sisters." Salvation is not merely a ticket to heaven; it is the restoration of God's image within us, aligning our character with Christ.

Living like Jesus also serves as our witness to the world. In John 15:8, Jesus states, "This is to my Father's glory, that you bear much fruit, showing yourselves to be my disciples." When our attitudes, actions, and speech reflect Jesus, God is glorified, and those around us catch a glimpse of His love and truth.

Furthermore, walking in Christlikeness fulfills God's clear directive for our lives. As written in 1 Thessalonians 4:3, "It is God's will that you should be sanctified."

The How: Surrender, Abiding, and Mindful Renewal

Transformation into the image of Christ does not happen through willpower alone, but through active partnership with the Holy Spirit.

First, transformation requires daily surrender and abiding in Christ. In John 15:5, Jesus says, "I am the vine; you are the branches. If you remain in me and I in you, you will bear much fruit; apart from me you can do nothing." Spiritual growth flows from connection, not strain. As we spend time in prayer, worship, and fellowship, we abide in His presence, allowing His life to flow through ours.

Second, becoming like Jesus involves the daily renewing of our minds through Scripture. Romans 12:2 instructs, "Do not conform to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God's will is—his good, pleasing and perfect will." Truth replaces worldly patterns when we mediate on and apply God's Word.

Finally, Christlikeness develops as we yield to the active work of the Holy Spirit within us. 2 Corinthians 3:18 describes this continuous process: “And we all, who with unveiled faces contemplate the Lord’s glory, are being transformed into his image with ever-increasing glory, which comes from the Lord, who is the Spirit.” As we submit our choices, reactions, and motives to the Spirit, He produces in us the fruit of love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control.

Becoming more like Jesus is a lifelong journey marked by grace. It begins with a willingness to surrender and unfolds day by day as the Holy Spirit shapes our hearts to mirror the savior.

A few of the things we need to know to grow more and more like Jesus are Confession, Repentance and Forgiveness, so let’s spend some time on those now.

Confession is agreeing with God. Sometimes we agree with God that we’ve done something we shouldn’t or didn’t do something we should have. It’s saying He’s right and we’re going to change.

The fact we change is what’s called “Repentance”. There are two words for repentance in the Bible. The first one is Greek and it means “to change your mind”. The other one is Hebrew and it means “to turn around and go in the complete opposite direction”. Understand repentance requires we make both of those choices. Our minds are changed when we can confess our sin and repent. We turn around when we stop doing what we shouldn’t and/or start doing what we should.

> James 5:16 says “Confess your sins to each other and pray for each other so that you may be healed. The earnest prayer of a righteous person has great power and produces wonderful results.” (NLT)

Confessing our sins to one another is not about securing God’s forgiveness of our sin. John tells “But if we confess our sins to Him, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all wickedness.” (1 John 1:9) So why then do we confess our sins to one another?

James tells us: so that you may be healed. When we confess our sins to one another and repent, we are restored by the one we confess to.

Is there something you need to confess to your Growth Coach? They are trustworthy people who will keep everything they can in confidence. If you need help making things right, they will help in anyway they can.

If nothing jumps to you mind, there's no need to go searching for it. Holy Spirit is the one who convicts us and He'll do it when it's needed.

Confession and repentance are wonderful tools for us as we learn to love others more and more. Another tool that we need in our arsenal is Forgiveness.

Jesus told His disciples in a parable that we need to forgive each other with our hearts (Matthew 18:15-35). We need to unpack what that means.

To ancient Hebrews, our heart is the seat of our intellect, the seat of our will and the seat of our emotions. It covers covers all three and is the place we make sense of the world.

1. We need to forgive with our intellect.

Forgiveness is a choice. This an act of our intellect. If we don't choose to forgive, we'll never feel like we've forgiven.

Sometimes we don't forgive because we think the offender won't pay if we forgive. What it actually means is we pay if we don't forgive (Matthew 6:14-15; Luke 6:37)

Sometimes we want to wait until the person changes before we forgive. But we're told to forgive as Christ forgave us (Colossians 3:13) and He did that while we were still sinners (Romans 5:8).

Sometimes we don't can't forgive because we think it means we automatically need to put ourself back in danger. It doesn't. The root of Greek word used in the Bible for "forgive" means "to cut off, sever, release, send away." Forgiveness is not the same as reconciliation.

2. We need to forgive with our will (actions).

We need to bless those who curse us. This is an act of our will. We can bless in word or in deed. We need to obey what God commands.

Sometimes with these two parts of the heart in agreement, Holy Spirit can do an amazing work in us so that we actually feel like we've forgiven them. It's amazing what happens when all three parts of our heart come into alignment. We can truly live in the freedom forgiveness brings.

3. WE NEED TO FORGIVE WITH OUR EMOTIONS.

If you don't feel like you've forgiven someone whose offended you, there is a problem. Our feelings show us the truth about what we really believe. We always feel what we believe. Our emotions are wonderful servants, but they will overrule the other two parts of heart.

When the truth doesn't feel true, it's because we believe something contrary to the truth, not because the truth isn't true.

When we don't feel like we've forgiven an offender we can't ignore our our feelings. Our intellectual belief and choice to bless will only take us so far. We need Holy Spirit's persuasion or we will not be able to forgive from the heart.

We need to feel like we've forgiven someone who's offended us. We can't ignore or push aside these feelings. Let them show you what Holy Spirit needs to heal. We all need well healed wounds.

Now the good news God wants to help us heal those wounds we have. We have beliefs attached to those wounds that cause us to feel what we feel.

Emotions are our friends, pointing us in the direction we need to take in order to identify what we really believe. Memory helps us answer the question: How did I come to believe what I currently believe which is causing me to feel what I feel? Once the lie we're believing has been identified we can offer it to the Lord for His perspective. This is when Holy Spirit can persuade our hearts of the truth. When this occurs, forgiveness from the heart will naturally follow.  Forgiveness becomes an expected outcome of being persuaded of God's truth in our heart.

The Bible has a lot of commands for how we're to treat one another. These are called the "one another" commands:

Honour One Another

Love each other with genuine affection, and take delight in honouring each other. Romans 12:10 (NLT)

Accept One Another

Therefore, accept each other just as Christ has accepted you so that God will be given glory. Romans 15:7 (NLT) See also Romans 12:16; 1 Peter 3:8; 1 Corinthians 1:10

Serve One Another

For you have been called to live in freedom, my brothers and sisters. But don't use your freedom to satisfy your sinful nature. Instead, use your freedom to serve one another in love. Galatians 5:13 (NLT)

Don't Condemn One Another

So let's stop condemning each other. Decide instead to live in such a way that you will not cause another believer to stumble and fall. Romans 14:13 (NLT)

Submit to One Another

And further, submit to one another out of reverence for Christ. Ephesians 5:21(NLT) See also 1 Peter 5:5

Forgive One Another

Make allowance for each other's faults, and forgive anyone who offends you. Remember, the Lord forgave you, so you must forgive others. Colossians 3:13 (NLT) See also Ephesians 4:32

Encourage One Another

So encourage each other and build each other up, just as you are already doing. 1 Thessalonians 5:11 (NLT) See aslo Hebrews 3:13; Hebrews 10:24 ; Hebrews 10:25

Love One Another

You were cleansed from your sins when you obeyed the truth, so now you must show sincere love to each other as brothers and sisters. Love each other deeply with all your heart. 1 Peter 1:22 (NLT) See also Romans 12:10; Ephesians 4:2

Confess your sins to one another

Therefore, confess your sins to one another and pray for one another, so that you may be healed. The urgent request of a righteous person is very powerful in its effect.
James 5:16 (HCSB)

The easiest way for us to do that is to see and treat each other as friends. There are a number of ways for you to get connected with a local church. Perhaps you're already involved in some of them?

TOOL

Figure out who is in your everyday world. Think about the people of peace in your life. (Luke 10:5-9) These are the ones who want to serve you. If you can't think of any, think about the ones who need to know Jesus. Then remember to do these three things:

Pray for them

Personally pray for people in your everyday world every day. Share your prayers with your Soul Friends so they can pray and agree with you. Pray God's will for them. Pray the word of God over them. Always pray and never give up.

Help them

Every week you're encouraged to help or bless three people – someone inside the church, someone outside the church and someone God highlights for you. You find these people in your everyday world. Love on the people in your everyday world in ways they'll appreciate. Make time for them and don't be pushy. Do the good you know you ought to do. Create or strengthen real friendships.

Welcome them

Every week you're encouraged to welcome  three people into your rhythms – someone inside the church, someone outside the church and someone God highlights for you. Again, these people are most likely in your everyday world. After you've prayed for them regularly and blessed  them in ways they appreciate, look for opportunity to welcome them to something that would be of value to them. ### Three ways serving can grow you

1. Serving directly grows our faith.

Watching God work in someone else's life increases our faith. In John 2:1-11, Jesus performs His first miracle at a wedding in Cana by turning the water into wine. Other than Mary, Jesus' mother, only the servers at the wedding witnessed this miracle. The wedding attendees received the benefit of the new wine, and the wedding party saved face because of the miracle, but it was the servers who had the first opportunity to witness Jesus' power. Serving allows us to experience His power firsthand and that naturally produces faith in us.

2. Serving helps us see and experience who we're meant to grow into.

> "... WE ARE GOD'S HANDIWORK, CREATED IN CHRIST JESUS TO DO GOOD WORKS, WHICH GOD HAS PREPARED IN ADVANCE FOR US TO DO"... "WE'RE ALL MOVING RHYTHMICALLY AND EASILY WITH EACH OTHER, EFFICIENT AND GRACEFUL IN RESPONSE TO GOD'S SON, FULLY MATURE ADULTS, FULLY DEVELOPED WITHIN AND WITHOUT, FULLY ALIVE LIKE CHRIST"
> (Ephesians 4:7-13, MSG)

God also uses our serving, and those we serve with, to reveal our gifts to us. 1 Peter 4:10says, "Each of you should use whatever gift you have received to serve others, as faithful stewards of God's grace in its various forms." When we are operating in our gifting to serve God and others, we experience the kind of joy we were made for!

3. Serving requires obedience and redirects our focus to Jesus.

The simplest way to follow Jesus is by doing what He did. In Matthew 20:28, Jesus tells us He came to serve, not be served. By being obedient to follow Jesus in this way, we get to know Him on a new level because we experience firsthand His love for others. When we begin to care for and serve others, God redirects our focus.

Key 3 - Make Disciples

So they love God and love People

Making disciples is the primary mission and core mandate entrusted by Jesus to His followers before His ascension. In Matthew 28:18-20, known as the Great Commission, Jesus declares, “All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you.” This directive reveals that the ultimate calling of the Church goes beyond simply sharing the Gospel or securing individual conversions; it is an active, outward command to form devoted, lifelong followers of Christ across every culture and nation, grounded in His authority and enduring presence.

Scripture demonstrates that disciple-making is an intentional, relational process of spiritual investment and ongoing instruction. Rather than a quick transaction, making disciples involves walking alongside others to teach them how to live out God's truth in every area of life. The Apostle Paul illustrates this practical model of spiritual mentoring in 2 Timothy 2:2, instructing, "And the things you have heard me say in the presence of many witnesses entrust to reliable people who will also be qualified to teach others." Biblical discipleship requires modeling faith in real time—sharing not only the Scriptures, but also one's daily life, so that believers are equipped to mature and guide others in turn.

Ultimately, the biblical instruction to make disciples creates a continuous culture of spiritual multiplication and Kingdom growth. Discipleship is designed as a compounding effort, ensuring that the message of Christ is preserved and passed down from generation to generation. By investing in others through mentorship, shared wisdom, accountability, and practical service, believers active build up the body of Christ. As Christians commit to this calling, they participate in God's broader plan to fill the world with living witnesses of His grace, love, and transformative power.

Knowing Who You Are

What are you good at? What do you like to do? What do your friends say about you? What have you done in the past? What are your dreams for the future? How do you describe yourself with your work and relationships?

When you ask these questions or yourself, it can help you learn where your strengths lie, they are important to know, but are your strengths and gifts really who you are?

So who are you in Christ?

In Christ… (From Neil T Anderson's The Steps to Freedom in Christ)

In Christ I am completely accepted. God says that…

I am God's child (John 1:12)

I am Christ's friend (John 15:15)

I have been justified (Romans 5:1)

I am united with the Lord and I am one spirit with Him (1Cor 6:17)

I have been bought with a price; I belong to God (1Cor 6:19,20)

I am a member of Christ's Body (1 Corinthians 12:27)

I am a saint, a holy one (Ephesians 1:1)

I have been adopted as God's child (Ephesians 1:5)

I have direct access to God through the Holy Spirit (Ephesians 2:18)

I have been redeemed and forgiven of all my sins (Colossians 1:14)

I am complete in Christ (Colossians 2:10)

In Christ I am totally secure. God says that…

I am free forever from condemnation (Romans 8:1,2)

I am assured all things work together for good. (Romans 8:28)

I am free from any condemning charges against me (Rom 8:31-34)

I cannot be separated from the love of God (Romans 8:35-39)

I have been established, anointed and sealed by God

I am confident that the good work God has begun in me will be perfected (Philippians 1:6)

I am a citizen of heaven (Philippians 3:20)

I am hidden with Christ in God (Colossians 3:3)

I have not been given a spirit of fear, but of power, love and a sound mind (2 Timothy 1:7)

I can find grace and mercy to help in time of need (Hebrews 4:16)

I am born of God and the evil one cannot touch me (1 John 5:18)

In Christ I am deeply significant. God says that…

I am the salt of the earth and the light of the world (Mat 5:13,14)

I am a branch of the true vine, a channel of His life (John 15:1,5)

I have been chosen and appointed by God to bear fruit (John 15:6)

I am a personal, Spirit-empowered witness of Christ's (Acts 1:8)

I am a temple of God (1 Corinthians 3:16)

I am a minister of reconciliation for God (2 Corinthians 5:17-21)

I am God's co-worker (2 Corinthians 6:1)

I am seated with Christ in the heavenly realms (Ephesians 2:6)

I am God's workmanship, created for good works (Eph 2:10)

I may approach God with freedom and confidence (Eph 3:12)

I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me! (Phi 4:13)

What statements stood out for you? What statements might you not agree with?

Knowledge itself isn't enough. We can't hold it as an idea in our head or sentiment in our heart, we need to work out its implication in every area of our lives.

What is your heart? It's your intellect, emotion and will. What you think, what you feel and what you do.

How do things move from your intellect to your emotions? It's a supernatural work of God. That doesn't mean we don't play our part. Our job often is to line up what we believe with what we do and expect God to line our emotions up with that.

You can't know what God thinks about you and live the same life the same way. You can't be like the people around you. You've been bought with a price you belong to God. Sin has no hold on you. Consider yourself dead to sin and alive to God. Romans 6:11 Put sin to death.  Romans 8:13  Don't allow this world to conform you. Your mind is transformed as you renew it. Romans 12:2 You've been raised with Christ, so set your hearts on things above. Colossians 3:1

How do you do that?

> ...whatever is true, whatever is noble, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is admirable—if anything is excellent or praiseworthy—think about such things. Philippians 4:8

Live up to what you've already attained.

What is keeping you from agreeing with God about the truth He sees in you?

TOOL

Homework:

Go to this link. Print off your personalized identity in Christ and memorize it.

There are two reasons to know this list forward and backwards:

1. So you know who you are in Christ

Too many Christians act out of the lies we tell ourselves. It makes us inept andanemic. Living out of who you are in Christ gives you authority.

2. So you can tell other believers who they are in Christ

You will be ministering to people who need to be reminded of the truth of how God sees them. When you pray scripture over them, you can pray with confidence. The truth of the Word breaks the weight off of people.

Step 8 - Live Generously

In order to grow we need to give

Opening Question

Tell your Growth Coach about a time you've been generous and why you were. Ask them to share a story about their own growing in generosity.

Training

Often generosity is only thought of in terms of what we can give financially. The Bible tells us our financial giving should be done: Thoughtfully (2 Corinthians 9:7); Joyfully (2 Corinthians 9:7) ; Regularly (1 Corinthians 16:2) and Proportionately (2 Corinthians 8:12).

We are commanded to support those who preach the gospel (Matt. 10:10; Luke 10:7; 1 Corinthians 9:6–14; 1 Tim. 5:17–18). And while we should enjoy the good things God gives us, we are also called to be generous to those in need (1 Tim. 6:17–19; 2 Corinthians 8–9). Wealth can so easily become an idol, leading us to abandon the Lord.

Giving 10 percent of what you receive is a great place to start, but don't think that makes you generous. Never give to stave off the wrath of an angry God – because He's not angry. Never adopt an "I gave at the office" mentality – because we need to live generously. Since God is to be our treasure, believers are to give generously and freely. For many in the West, this will mean giving more than 10 percent and not caring if we get a tax receipt for it.

The Billy Graham Evangelical Association sums it up well…"we should give individually, regularly, methodically, and proportionately. The matter of your giving is between you and God, and He always takes into account our circumstances."

When we talk about living generously and how we work it out in discipleship, it's all about how we're generous with our time with others. One of the best ways we can live generously towards other is to listen to their stories.

Dietrich Bonheoffer has said, "The first service that one owes to others in the fellowship is listening to them. Just as the love of God begins with listening to His word, so the beginning of love for the brethren is listening to them. It is God's love for us that He not only gives us His word, but also lends us His ear."

The best example we could have is Jesus and how he took time to listen to others.

Jesus was willing to touch people (Matthew 8:1-4, Mark 5:25-34,Mark 10:13-16)

Jesus was willing to be interrupted (Mark 10:17-27, Luke 19:1-10, Mark 10:46-52)

Jesus was willing to listen to people (Luke 24:13-39, John 4:7-26)

There is a transforming significance and profound simplicity in learning to listen to others. We honour them by hearing their stories. And we get something out of it for ourselves as well…

Proverbs 11:25 says “A generous person will prosper; whoever refreshes others will be refreshed.”

Whenever we do something to bless others, we can be refreshed by refreshing them, but being able to listen generously is so critical.

Dietrich Bonheoffer  has also said, “Christians so often think they must always contribute something when they are in the company of others – that is the one service they have to render. They forget that listening can be a greater service than speaking.”

CHRIST AS OUR EXAMPLE

1. Jesus was willing to listen to understand another person’s perspective.

“What are you discussing together as you walk along?” They stood still, their faces downcast. Cleopas asked the Lord, “Are you only a visitor to Jerusalem and do not know the things that have happened there in these days?” “What things?” Jesus asked. (Luke 24:17-20)

Jesus knew how to ask informative questions that allowed Him to find out what was really important to people.

To be good listener, I need to ask what, why, when, where and how type questions that draw people out.

2. Jesus did not just listen to what people said.

When Jesus’ mother said to her son, “They have no more wine.” Jesus said, “Dear woman, why do you involve me?” My time has not yet come. His mother said to the servants, “Do whatever he tells you.” Jesus said to the servants, “Fill the jars with water… now draw some out and take it to the master of the banquet.” They did so and the master of the banquet tasted the water that had been turned into wine. (John 2:3-9)

The Lord listened to people’s emotions, ideas, and implications. Jesus listened in a way that helped Him identify a person’s need. Jesus listened not only for the words, but for the sense of urgency in the tone of people’s voices.

To be good listener, I need to listen for the sense of urgency in the tone of people's voices.

3. Jesus was willing to put away negative feelings, grudges, hurts or misunderstandings to really hear what people were saying.

The Samaritan woman at the well said, "You are a Jew and I am a Samaritan woman. How can you ask me for a drink?" (For Jews do not associate with Samaritans) John 4:9

Jesus risked being accused of becoming ceremonially unclean if he used a drinking vessel handled by a Samaritan, since the Jews held that all Samaritans were unclean.

To be good listener, I need to see what God sees, not what's obvious to the world.

4. Jesus was willing to listen without interrupting.

The Lord learned how to listen to His heavenly Father every morning in prayer. "Very early in the morning, while it was still dark, Jesus got up, left the house and went off to a solitary place, where he prayed." (Mark 1:35)

To be good listener, I need to listen to God through His word and in my prayer times.

5. Jesus spent a great deal of time listening to people who were hurting.

"That evening after sunset the people brought to Jesus all the sick and demon possessed. The whole town gathered at the door, and Jesus healed many who had various diseases." (Mark 1:32-34)

By listening to each person's specific problem the Lord showed that He was interested in more than just physical healing, but also emotional, social and spiritual restoration.

To be good listener, I need to learn the art and science of listening for all kinds of reasons why people are hurting.

6. Jesus responded from compassion

A man with leprosy came and knelt in front of Jesus, begging to be healed. “If you are willing, you can heal me and make me clean,” he said. Moved with compassion, Jesus reached out and touched him. “I am willing,” he said. “Be healed!” Mark 1:40-41

This is only one of several places where we see Jesus responding from compassion. He only said what he heard the Father say and only did what He saw the Father doing. You and I can learn to follow the Father the same way.

Whoever claims to live in him must walk as Jesus did (1 John 2:6).

To be a good listener, I need to respond from compassion.

Your daily time in the Bible helps with that.

7. Jesus listened for a progressive level of information.

Jesus said, “I tell you the truth, no one can see the kingdom of God unless he is born again.” Nicodemus said, “How can a man be born when he is old? Surely he cannot enter a second time into his mother’s womb to be born!”(John 3:3,4)

Jesus put out a choice piece of spiritual truth to see how well Nicodemus was ready for higher levels of truth. The Lord was able to acquire information about people by letting one piece of information teach Him volumes about people’s spiritual maturity level.

To be a good listener, I need to move from the visible to invisible truths when people are asking it.

TOOL

10 Tools for Effective Listening

1. Face the speaker – maintain eye contact if you're listening to a women. Men communicate best staring ahead.
2. Be attentive, yet relaxed.
3. Keep an open mind – do not judge.
4. Listen to the words and try to picture in your mind the event or thought being described.
5. Do not interrupt!
6. Wait for the speaker to pause to ask limited clarifying questions. Ask questions for clarification only, not to probe for further details or to be intrusive.
7. Do not impose your solutions or try to fix.
8. Try to feel what the speaker is feeling.
9. Give the speaker regular feedback; restate, summarize, reflect, validate, encourage.
10. Pay attention to what isn't said – feelings, facial expressions, gestures, posture or other non-verbal cues.

Step 9 - Always Share

In order to grow we need to share

Opening Question

Have you shared your faith with someone? Share your experience with your Growth Coach. Ask them to share about a time they shared and what happened.

Training

It's been my experience that every single person will impact a thousand people in their lives. There may not be a thousand people at your funeral, but when a thousand people hear about your funeral, they'll mourn, they'll pray, they'll do what they can for your family.

Every single one of us impact those around us more than we will ever know on this side of heaven.

You will hardly know how much you impact people in your everyday world.

Saying we'll each impact a thousand people over the course of our lives is a more than realistic and reasonable number. It also becomes amazing for math. Over the course of your life you'll influence over a thousand people, just being the person you are. Since they will influence a thousand themselves, and those thousand influence another thousand, you are one degree away from influencing a million people and two degrees away from influencing a billion people.

You can't worry about a lifetime of influence right now. God has strategically and supernaturally placed 6 -15 people that He wants to transform through you.

Think about the people of peace in your life (Luke 10:5-9). These are the ones who want to serve you.

If you can't think of any, think about the ones who need to know Jesus. These are your friends, family, neighbours, classmates, co-workers or anyone God points out.

There are some people who will struggle to get one to three names. They are honestly trying but they have a hard time imagining more. If that's you, work at it and try to get at least six.

Other people will fill out the sheet on the front and back and grab more paper to fill out more names. If that's you, limit it to twelve to fifteen people God wants you to bless or invite in the next six months.

How many people you have on your list has nothing to do with spirituality and everything to do with personality. Your goal is to partner with Holy Spirit and listen to what He says. Then use the strategies and see what He does.

TOOL

In this section we have three tools for you. The first is a sheet to help you figure who God wants you to include inside your everyday world. The second is strategies to impact your everyday world. The third is how to lead people to Christ and introduce them to Him. We don't break our journey down to a formula, but want you to know enough to be dangerous for the Kingdom.

Worksheet

Friends - Family - Neighbours

Classmates - Coworkers - Anybody God points out

NB. You can update this worksheet whenever Holy Spirit puts someone on your heart.

4 STRATEGIES TO IMPACT YOUR EVERYDAY WORLD

It is absolutely clear that God has called you to a free life. Just make sure that you don't use this freedom as an excuse to do whatever you want to do and destroy your freedom. Rather, use your freedom to serve one another in love; that's how freedom grows. For everything we know about God's Word is summed up in a single sentence: Love others as you love yourself. Galatians 5:13-15 (MSG)

1. Pray for them.

Personally pray for people in your everyday world every day. Share your prayers with your Growth Coach so they can pray and agree with you. Pray God's will for them. Pray the word of God over them. Always pray and never give up.

2. Help them.

Every week you're encouraged to help or bless three people – someone inside the church, someone outside the church and someone God highlights for you. You find these people in your everyday world. Love on the people in your everyday world in ways they'll appreciate. Make time for them and don't be pushy. Do the good you know you ought to do. Create or strengthen real friendships.

3. Welcome them.

Every week you're encouraged to welcome  three people into your rhythms – someone inside the church, someone outside the church and someone God highlights for you. Again, these people are most likely in your everyday world. After you've prayed for them regularly and blessed  them in ways they appreciate, look for opportunity to welcome them to something that would be of value to them. The rhythms of our life include Eating, Creating, Celebrating, Recreating, Serving, Worshipping, Working. Part of wecloming them is to let them serve you. This was the strategy Jesus gave His disciples when he sent out the twelve and the seventy.

4. Make use of TIME

T estimony

I ntentionality

M essy relationships

E veryday Jesus

T is testimony you need to know your testimony. What a testimony? It's the story. There's a beginning, there's a middle, there's a end.  What was it like before what happened?  What happened? What was it like afterwards?  If your testimony of salvation happened years and years and years ago that's great… if it's still pertinent. But people want to know that God is alive today. They want to know that the Jesus of history is the Christ of faith today. What is he doing in your life this week? What has he done recently? What have you seen? The beginning, middle  and end. That's the story that's all you need to know.

The I in the acronym is that you have to be intentional. You can bless people three times a week forever and they're never gonna get to know Jesus if you forget to bring him in. You can disciple people three times a week and they can become just like you and that's not the point. The point is that become like Jesus not you.  You need to be intentional about it.

The M in acronym TIME is that you've got to be ready for messy relationships. By messy relationships I'm not talking about your life. Christian's always think "that's great I can just be myself" is like no be nice the messy relationship that there's a proverb that says the the the stable where that where the oxen is absent the stable is clean but the strength of the ox brings in the harvest you have to be ready for messy relationships

The E in the acronym TIME is everyday Jesus. Get so filled up with Jesus that He just leaks out. Wherever you are if you gotta think about "okay I got to talk about Jesus" in this relation you're gonna stress yourself out. But if you get so in love with Jesus – through worship and through reading the word – He starts to leak out. I think every single Christian should read Jesus every day. You read the gospel that's the one thing you're going to read every day.

How to share your faith without an argument.

An overview of evangelist Bill Fay's simple, step-by-step approach to effectively sharing your faith.

The approach

1. Do you have any kind of spiritual belief?
2. Who is Jesus to you?
3. Do you think there is a heaven and a hell?
4. If you died right now, where would you go?
5. If what you believe was not true, would you want someone to tell you?

If they same "no", to push it. If they say, "yes", show them what the Bible says.

Romans 3:23, Romans 6:23, John 3:3, John 14:6, Romans 10:9-11, Revelation 3:20

In case you're wondering where to go next, here's something you can do. In the margin of Romans 3:23 write Romans 6:23; in the margin of Romans 6:23 write John 3:3 and so on. Each time you turn to a verse, you'll know where to go next.

The invitation

1. Do you want forgiveness of sins?
2. Do you believe Jesus died on the cross for you and rose again?
3. Are you willing to surrender yourself to Christ?
4. Are you ready to place your trust in Jesus and invite him into your life?

Here's an example of a prayer.

> Dear Jesus,
> I've messed up. I know you call that sin. I can't be good enough on my own. Please forgive me. I want to change. I want to do what you want me to do. You died and are alive today and because of that your Holy Spirit will give me strength to become like you in every way. Thank you. You are Lord. You're in the driver's seat of my life. I am going to do everything you want me to do. Thank you for forgiving me. Amen

After they pray a prayer like that with you, help them to listen to the Holy Spirit.

> What do you think Holy Spirit is saying to you?

Affirm what you can agree Holy Spirit is saying.

They can invite Holy Spirit to be with them always be with them.

Here's an example of a prayer.

> Whatever it takes, Lord, fill me with Holy Spirit and any gifting you would be pleased to give me.

And do not get drunk with wine, for that is debauchery, but be filled with the Spirit, addressing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody to the Lord with your heart, giving thanks always and for everything to God the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. (Ephesians 5:18–20)

It's Never a conclusion

Living The Kingdom Way is not about trying harder or striving for moral perfection in your own strength—it is about surrendering to a whole new way of being. As you move from avoiding gratitude to embracing its life-giving power, the posture of your heart naturally shifts.

Loving God becomes your foundational purpose, loving others becomes your visible witness, and making disciples completes the cycle of healing, restoration, and spiritual growth.

This journey was never meant to end with personal transformation. True restoration is relational; when you walk closely with Jesus, His life, grace, and love inevitably overflow into the lives of those around you. Making disciples is simply passing on the freedom you have received, walking alongside others, and helping them discover the depth of God's grace for themselves.

As you step forward, remember that you do not walk this path alone. The Holy Spirit empowers every step, transforming your daily choices into a living expression of God’s Kingdom on Earth. Step into this calling with confidence—abide in Him, love intentionally, and help others find their way.
